Amend the Fishery Laws of Ireland.

A.D. 1892.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

5    1. This Act may be cited as the Fishery Laws (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1892. Short title.

2. This Act extends only to Ireland and to the parts of the sea adjoining Ireland. Extent of Act.

10    3. It shall not be lawful to use the method of fishing known as beam trawling or other fishing within three miles of the low-water mark of any part of the coast of Ireland, nor within the waters specified in the schedule hereto annexed, save only between such points on the coast or within such other defined areas as may from time to time be permitted by byelaws of the Fishery Board for 15 Ireland. Beam and other trawling within certain limits prohibited.

The Fishery Board may from time to time make, alter, and revoke byelaws for the purpose of this section, but a byelaw shall not be of any validity until it is confirmed by the Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant.

20    4. Any person who uses any method of fishing in contravention of this enactment, or of any byelaw of the Fishery Board, shall be liable, on conviction under the Summary Jurisdiction (Ireland) Act, to a fine not exceeding five pounds for the first offence, and not exceeding twenty pounds for the second or any subsequent offence,
25 and every net set or attempted to be set in contravention of this section shall be forfeited, and may be seized and destroyed, or otherwise disposed of, by any constable or by any person duly appointed by the Fishery Board. Penalties.
